

Check List Seamen

According to the Spanish regulation, to apply for transit visa for seamen who proceed to join ship in Spain, the Embassy of Spain needs the Local Port Agent in Spain to provide a letter of invitation with the following information:

- Name of the seaman.
- Date of Birth.
- Passport number.
- Issued date and expiry date.
- Seaman book number.
- Issued date and expiry date.
- Job title.
- Date of entry into Spain and Airport.
- Vessel name and its flag.
- Port of embarkation.
- Duration of stay on the vessel.
- Port of disembarkation.
- Date of return to home country.
- Itinerary of arrival and return to home country.
- Name and address of agent in home country.
- Confirmation to take responsibility of transferring the seaman to and from Spain/ Port.

Remaining documents remains same for Schengen visa but without proof of accommodation.

- Photograph
- Schengen Visa application form
- letter of employment
- Letter of Invitation from Local Port Agent in Spain **
- Reservation of air ticket

-Health insurance

-Economic means

-Schengen visa fee